Global Trends in Type 2 Diabetes, 2007–2017

The Global Death Rate Due to Type 2 Diabetes Declined by 0.58% (Annualized) From 2007–2017
Age-standardized\textsuperscript{a} annual rate of change in type 2 diabetes deaths per 100,000 persons, 2007–2017

Countries with the 5 highest number of deaths due to type 2 diabetes

1. India
2. China
3. Indonesia
4. Mexico
5. United States

\textsuperscript{a}Each country uses age-standardized per 100,000 population for all ages combined.

Prevalence of Type 2 Diabetes Was Higher Among Males in 2017
Regions shown are those with the greatest disparities between males and females.

Type 2 Diabetes Has Become One of the Top 10 Leading Causes of Death Globally
Age-standardized deaths and percent change, 2007 and 2017

\textbf{Authors:} Joan Williams, BA; Michaela Loeffler, BA, for the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation

Please cite as: JAMA. 2019;322(16):1542. 10.1001/jama.2019.16074