

COSTA RICA

Costa Rica school survey performance indicators

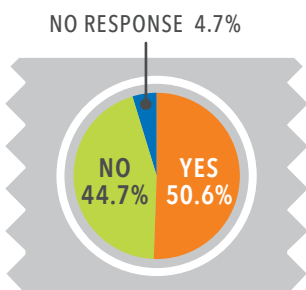

1 knowledge of contraceptives at facilities, 2 receiving sexual and reproductive health counseling, 3 identification of four STI symptoms, 4 identification of methods to reduce risk of STIs, 5 knowledge of proper use of contraceptive methods, 6 receiving contraceptive methods in EBASIS when requested, 7 satisfaction with care received in EBASIS, 8 use of modern contraceptive methods

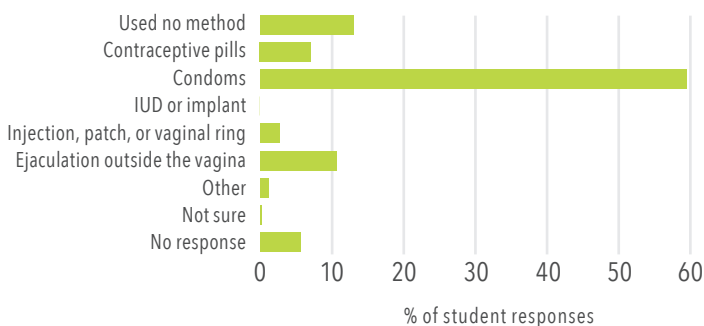

Baseline findings

88% of sexually active students reported using contraceptives.

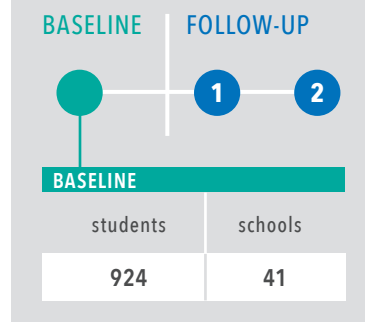

Used a condom during most recent sexual intercourse

Method used to prevent pregnancy during most recent sexual intercourse

Study design

Do most people your age have sexual relations?

Strongly agree Agree Disagree Strongly disagree No response

Girls are more popular if they have sexual relations.

Boys are more popular if they have sexual relations.

It is easier for women to be faithful to their partner than men.

Definitely yes Probably yes Probably no Definitely no No response

If you had intercourse right now, would your mom approve?

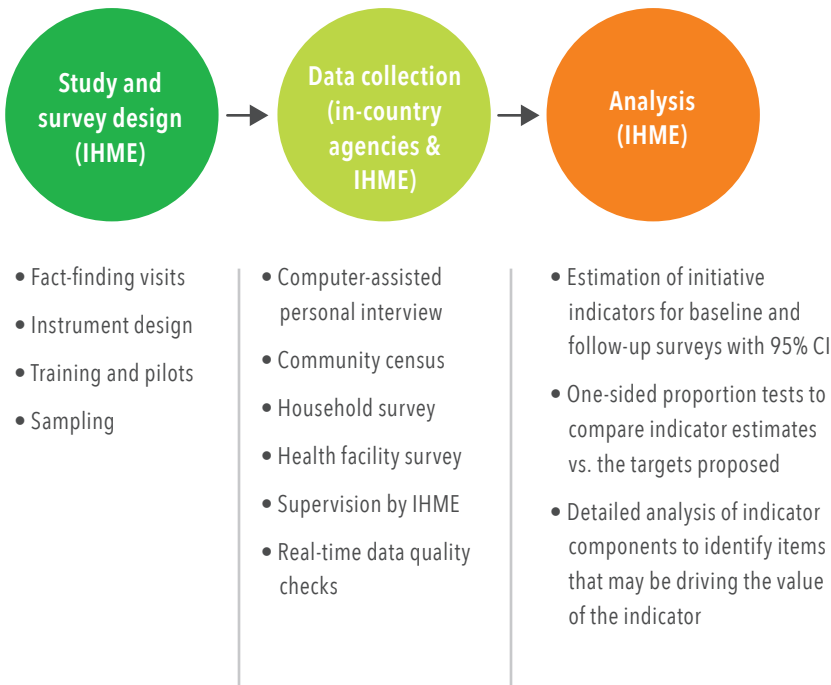

If you had intercourse right now, would your dad approve?

If you had intercourse right now, would your friends approve?

Source: SM2015 School Survey

www.healthdata.org/salud-mesoamerica-2015-initiative

Activity flowchart

Total data collected

Household and school surveys - baseline only

	Intervention	Control
Censuses	69,273	21,260
Households	15,584	4,641
Women	20,796	3,818
Children	17,780	5,225
Students	924	-

Health facility surveys

	Baseline		18-month Intervention
	Intervention	Control
Health facilities	365	114	379
Medical records	6,735	2,365	11,273

Regional success stories from SM2015 interventions

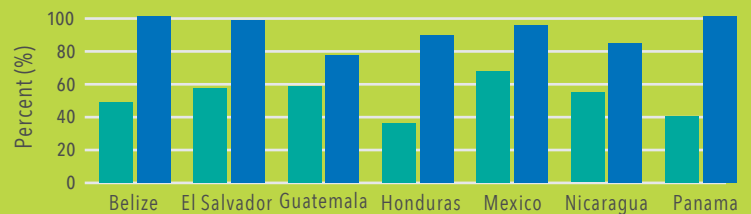

Data from facilities eligible for baseline and 18-month performance indicators

■ Baseline ■ 18-month follow-up

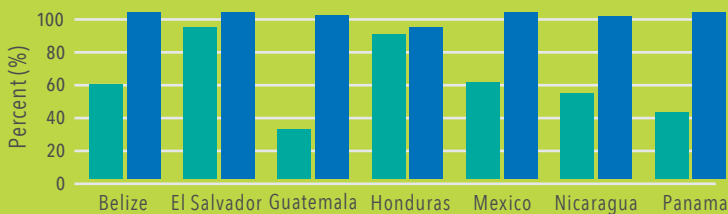

Modern family planning methods available on the day of the survey*

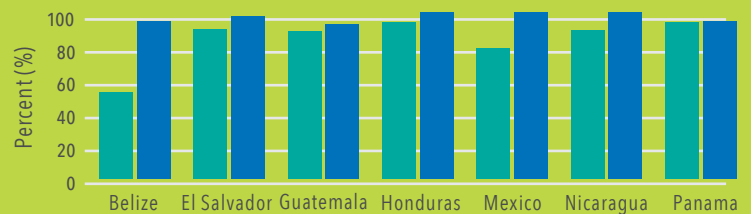

Availability of functional equipment: lamp for pelvic exam

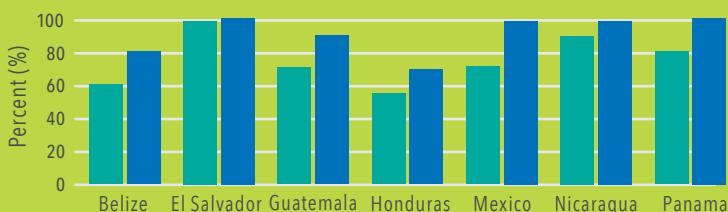

Availability of functional equipment: stethoscope for child care

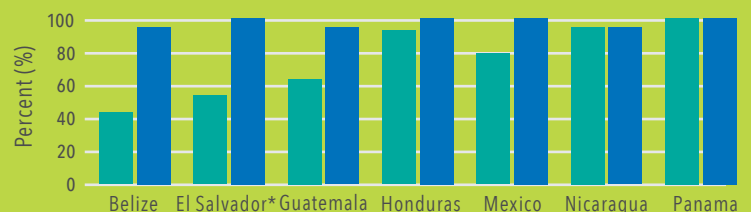

Availability of pharmacy inputs: oral rehydration salts

Availability of functional equipment: standing scale

Availability of pharmacy inputs: albendazole / mebendazole

* Baseline value for El Salvador considers only albendazole

All data from direct observations on the day of the survey.